Transfer Admissions Process

Gannon University has a transfer program to fit your needs. Whether you are completing an associate's degree program, returning to school after receiving an associate's degree or currently in a two-year or four-year program, we make the transfer process at Gannon easy to complete.

Students in good standing (generally defined as having a 2.0 grade point average or better on a 4.0 scale) at a two- or four-year institution are invited to apply for admission. Gannon University processes admissions decisions on a rolling basis for most majors.

Transfer students should submit the following:

- Gannon University Transfer Admissions Application (pages 5-6) or Online Application (www.gannon.edu/apply)
- Transfer Recommendation Form (page 7) from current or most recent school attended
- All official college/institution transcripts
- If you have less than 30 college credits, an official high school transcript. High school transcripts may also be requested for other reasons.
- Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) regardless of family income level in order to be considered for every available resource. Prior to completing the FAFSA, you may choose to get an early estimate of aid and costs by completing our Net Price Calculator (NPC) at <https://gannon.studentaidcalculator.com/survey.aspx>

Next-Step

If you already have an associate's degree from a regionally accredited institution you can expedite the completion of a bachelor's degree by majoring in some select fields (see next page). Gannon guarantees acceptance of up to 64 credits and allows students to enter Gannon with junior level status. Only courses in which grades of "C" (2.0) or better have been earned are eligible for transfer. At least two years of upper-division full-time study are required to obtain a bachelor's degree.

Apply Online

If you prefer, you can submit your Admissions Application electronically at www.gannon.edu/apply. If you choose to do so, please complete the following:

- Request all official college transcripts be sent to Gannon
- Use the enclosed Transfer Recommendation Form and submit to the Dean of Students' office at the most recent institution you have attended
- Submit your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). You may also choose to complete our Net Price Calculator at <https://gannon.studentaidcalculator.com/survey.aspx>

Transfer Website

As a prospective transfer student, we encourage you to visit our website designed exclusively for your needs at www.gannon.edu/transfer.

Application Deadlines

Gannon University processes admissions decisions on a rolling basis for most majors.

Some programs have limited enrollment. You are encouraged to apply as soon as possible. These programs are indicated by asterisks on the next page.

Financial Aid Process

First, receive an early estimate of aid and cost by completing the Net Price Calculator (NPC) at <https://gannon.studentaidcalculator.com/survey>.

Second, file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form at <https://studentaid.gov>. We recommend you submit this form online as soon as possible after October 1. All requests from the Financial Aid Office for information should be returned promptly.

Financial Aid Information

Gannon's Financial Aid Office advises all students, no matter their income level, to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid form (FAFSA) in order to be considered for every available resource. To get an early estimate of aid and costs we offer a Net Price Calculator (NPC). The NPC is an interactive tool available to assist current high school students plan for their educational costs. The estimated financial aid eligibility will only be as accurate as the input values provided by the user. The Cost of Attendance figures includes both direct and indirect costs based on our 2021-2022 Cost of Attendance. You can find Gannon's NPC on the financial aid web page at <https://gannon.studentaidcalculator.com/survey>.
